

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY--WEDDINGS AND RECEPTIONS

Continued from p. 1, Col. 2

which day, Washington's 100th birthday, was stretched across the Hudson at the Constitution Bridge to West Point, 1778 to 1916, in honor of George Washington's passing. His wife, Mrs. Peter Wadsworth, Vice-Secretary of the Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. Y., and the Honorable Walter S. Smith, a son-in-law of Mrs. Astor, were present.

John Bishop is attached to the S. S. Pan American, flagship of the Atlantic fleet, which will be in Britain next month. He was an officer from Yale in 1916 and after a year of study in Europe entered the Union Theological Seminary here from which he was graduated in 1918. He was less than two years thereafter one of the assistant ministers of St. George's Church, Stayesbury Square.

There is now a new "Court of Inquest" of prominent New Yorkers selected to be judges, like ourselves all the time in London. There are other judges of the world's great cities. Few would have thought fifty years ago that the home of our late A. G. Heald would give way to something else. The same fate would come to the houses of John D. and William D. Morgan which stand at the corners of Fifty-third and Thirty-fourth streets on the west side of Fifth Avenue. A few days and many others have passed. Now there will be another new unknown of a member of the Belmont family. August Belmont has relinquished his home in East Thirty-fourth street for one of the modern apartments just being completed at the northeast corner of Fifth and Sixty-third streets. Commercial buildings have been invading Thirty-fourth street, and Mr. Belmont has had no longer than many others in the section.

Mrs. Ernest Drexel, who has come from Fairchild, Ohio, with her daughter, the Miss Drexels, will go to her mother's home, the East Sixtieth-sixth street, where they are in residence. There will be a celebration of the birthday of her daughter, Miss Katherine Drexel Dallgren, to whom Smith Knobell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Deveson, Gunter and a grandson of the late Judge J. Lawrence Smith of Smithtown, L. I. and this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Beckel, who came from Newport last week, have gone to the Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where they will remain for some time. Mr. and Mrs. James E. D. Lester have taken possession of their old home in East Thirty-fifth street, which they had not occupied for several years. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. B. Pratt will be at 1140 Park avenue for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. William Frederick Stanford, who passed the summer in Greenwich, Conn., have decided not to open their home in East Seventy-ninth street, but during the winter will be at the Plaza. Mr. and Mrs. William B. Thompson have returned from Alder, their country place in Yonkers, and are at the St. Regis for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Dohle, who were for the greater part of the summer in Lake L. I., have taken for the winter the house of W. McNeil Reddick. The latter is now in England where his daughter, Miss Marie Louise Reddick, was recently married to Lt. Daven Perrins. Mrs. Dohle was formerly Mrs. John Jacob Astor. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Gilgespie have left Newark for 11 East Eighty-ninth street, and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. V. Hoffman are at 1550 Park. Mrs. Louis T. Hoyt and his brother, Shirley Jones, who were in Southampton for the summer and afterward went to California, returned in the early part of last week to 125 Fifth Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. James Lowell Putnam of Boston will again pass the winter in New York, and their recently leased the house at 51 West Forty-eighth street. Mrs. George Lewis Gresham of Washington, D. C., will be for the winter at the New Weston, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vaughan Poor, after living in Sweden for several years, will be at 175 East Eightieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga. This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate. Mr. Stokes afterward took it over. Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

Mr. Edward M. Burchard of 1,650 Ninety-second street will give a supper and dance at the Ritz-Carlton on December 8 for Miss Vivienne Kraman, whose engagement to her son, Edward Burchard, was recently announced. Miss Kraman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kraman of 372 West Ninety-second street. Mr. Burchard is a nephew of George Eliot.

The benefit of the National Society of the American Education Society, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Webster of 280 Madison Avenue, will be on November 17 at the Hotel Plaza, 100 Central Park West, to benefit the Fund for the Education of Negroes.

One of the Miss Elvina Schuyler, daughter of Joseph Schuyler of 160 West Seventy-second street, will be married at the Ritz-Carlton to Major Robert Eliot. The ceremony will be followed by a reception and dinner.

On November 10, Miss Jane Sukley Ward, a daughter of Mrs. Charles Sukley Ward, will be married to Lt. John Gibson of 140 Madison Avenue.

One of the earliest concerts for a charitable purpose will be given on the afternoon of November 27 in the Plaza Ballroom, under the auspices of the Dow-Ye-Nexto Pioneering Society, which was founded in 1888. The artists will be Miss Leggins, pianist; Miss Lucile Colgate, violin; and Lewis Gravemeire, harpist.

The society has come up with a house at 18 Leroy street, in which are invited boys and girls of that section, and it is trying to make good use of them. Mothers are not too often frequently and their daughters are much improved, the high school.

Mrs. Anna Blum is the president of the society; Miss Adele Bierman vice-president; Miss Martha Coker treasurer; and Miss Emily Nottie secretary. Among the active members are Mrs. Pauline S. Henry; Miss Laura Danner; Miss Margaret Armstrong; Miss Nelson H. Burr; Miss Evelyn White; Miss Lydia Ogden; Miss Henry Satterfield; Miss May Young; Mrs. McBride Livingston; Miss E. B. Brundage; and Miss Emily Scott.

Mrs. Oliver Iselin, Miss Gordon King Bell, Mrs. George Draper and other women prominent in society who constitute the executive committee of the Advertising Dance for the benefit of the Lenox Hill Settlement, are competing for the title of Miss America.

MISS JANE SUCKLEY WARD.

MISS MARTHA KEEP.

Miss Sukley Ward, who has been competing for the title of Miss America, will be married to Lt. John Gibson of 140 Madison Avenue.

Miss Warren Scott Silcox, 19, is Seventy-seventh street, will compete in the competition on November 29 at the Plaza to introduce her daughter, Miss Jane Sukley

Ward.

The competition will be opened by the Miss America, Miss Virginia, Mrs. Arthur Scott, Misses John, Ethel, Shirley, Miss Francis C. Bessey, Misses William, Elizabeth, Mrs. Arthur Murray, Mrs. Charles C. Gunns, Misses W. Aswell, H. Johnson, Miss Vincent Astor, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Charles C. Anchors, Mrs. George C. Clark, Mrs. J. Turner, Attorney, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Miss Ethel D. Morrison, Mrs. Gertrude H. Price, Mrs. Percy F. Price, Mrs. S. A. Marcella, Mrs. Thomas McNamee and Mrs. Charles L. Lawrence.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

MAN L. YOUNG, Jr., son of 318, West Twenty-first street, will be married on November 17 at the Hotel Plaza, 100 Central Park West, to Miss Adele Danner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adele N. Danner of 160 West Seventy-second street.

Miss Adele Danner is a graduate of the High School.

The parents will be married at the Hotel Plaza on November 17.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis Gresham of Washington, D. C., will be for the winter at the New Weston, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vaughan Poor, after living in Sweden for several years, will be at 175 East Eightieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired

through purchase Shadow Brook in Lenox, which for some years has been the country place of Senator Stephen of Saratoga.

This place was built more than twenty years ago by late Senator Francis Stanhope, who gave it up after being severely injured while riding in the woods on his estate.

Mr. Stokes afterward took it over.

Norton, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who are introducing to society their daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie, this winter, will make Shadow Brook their summer home.

—

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, who have been absent in the social life in Barbados since the foreign war made life at Sidcup Castle in Scotland impossible, have recently acquired